

JBLM STONE ARMY EDUCATION CENTER AND JBLM AACAP HAWK TRANSITION CENTER STARTING 2 JAN 14

STONE EDUCATION CENTER

HAWK TRANSITION CENTER

JBLM's Army and Air Force Career and Alumni Program (AACAP) will be delivering services and programs from Hawk Transition Center effective 2 Jan 14.

NOTE: Counseling, pre-separation and clearing will continue at AACAP Main, BLDG 3271

AACAP will continue supporting Servicemembers at Hawk with computer access at the lab, and food and beverage service from Subway and Maui Wowi.

College classes will be available at Stone Education Center and at local campuses.

The installation needed to reorganize personnel services due to current and anticipated budget constraints. This change is based on our staffing level and the facilities available to meet our current requirements.

JBLM AACAP provides transition services to more than 9,000 Servicemembers each year who are returning to civilian life. This change will provide these Servicemembers with a professional, consolidated location to receive services.
